

The one-year honours program in the School of Languages and Linguistics

1st semester

Exchange (the European summer (March-July) or winter (October-February) semester). Students will be enrolled in:

- A maximum of 37.5 points of coursework, usually the equivalent of 3 x 12.5 subjects
- 18.75 points towards the honours thesis subject (equivalent of half the honours thesis subject)

2nd semester

at The University of Melbourne

- 18.75 points of honours thesis subject (remaining half of the honours thesis subject)
- 12.5 points of an honours subject
- 12.5 points of an honours subject

Please note: This option places candidates under additional pressure. You will need to allow time for readjusting back to life in Australia and for dealing with culture shock. The School generally recommends the 18-month model.
