

Nuclear Governance in Asia-Pacific

Singapore, 8-10 March 2017

National University of Singapore (NUS)

Co-hosted by the University of Melbourne and the Energy Studies Institute at NUS

Sponsored by the Carnegie Corporation of New York

Wednesday, March 8

- 14:00 Check-in to hotel
Park Avenue Rochester
31 Rochester Drive, Singapore 138637
Phone: +65 6808 8600
- 18:30 Leave Hotel for Restaurant
Shuttle bus service provided from the Park Avenue Rochester lobby

The Halia at Singapore Botanic Gardens
1 Cluny Road, Ginger Garden, Singapore 259569
Phone: +65 8444 1148
- 21:30 Leave Restaurant for Hotel
Shuttle bus service provided from The Halia to Park Avenue Hotel

Thursday, March 9

- 08:30 Shuttle bus departs Park Avenue Hotel for NUS
29 Heng Mui Keng Terrace (Block A #10-01), Singapore 119620
- 09:00 Opening Remarks
Dr Trevor Findlay (Senior Research Fellow, University of Melbourne)
Dr Philip Andrews-Speed (Senior Principle Research Fellow, NUS)
- 09:30 Session I: What is the state of nuclear governance in Asia-Pacific?
Chair: Trevor Findlay
- 11:00 Coffee Break
- Quick Side Bar Briefing: Prof. Alan Tan on civil aviation governance in
- 11:30 Session II: What are the principal barriers to strengthened nuclear governance in Asia-Pacific as traditionally conceived: strategic, political, economic?
Chair: Sharon Squassoni

13:00 Lunch Break

14:00 Session III: What are additional barriers to strengthened nuclear governance in Asia-Pacific? Philosophical, cultural, including negotiation style, organizational, legal

Chair: Bates Gill

Quick Side-Bar Brief: Prof. Joel Lee Tye Beng on negotiation culture

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00: Session IV: What might be done to attenuate/remove the barriers; and how might Asia-Pacific contribute to global nuclear governance?

Chair: Carl Baker

17:15: Closing Remarks and discussion

17:45: Shuttle bus departs NUS for Park Avenue Hotel

19:30: Casual Dinner for Interested Participants

Friday, March 10

12:00 Check-out of hotel