

THE EARLY MODERN CIRCLE

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

—
SEMINAR PROGRAMME 2018

The Early Modern Circle is an informal, interdisciplinary seminar open to interested students, academics and researchers. The group meets at 6:15 pm, during semester, usually on the third Monday of the month, in the Macmahon Ball Theatre, (Room 107), Old Arts, at The University of Melbourne.

Monday 19th March: Prof. David Garrioch (Monash University)
Fire and Social Inequality in Eighteenth-Century Paris

Monday 16th April: Dr Sasha Handley (University of Manchester - with the ARC Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions)
Contesting Cruelty: Women's Voices and Ghost Stories in Early Modern England

Monday 21st May: Ass. Prof. Dolly MacKinnon (University of Queensland)
'Spoke with a Broad Scottish Accent': Slave Children in Eighteenth-century-Scotland
 Please note change of venue for this session: North Lecture Theatre (Room 239), Old Arts*

Monday 20 August: Dr. Garritt (Chip) Van Dyk (University of Sydney)
Cultivating Luxury: Collectors, Companies, and Botany in Early Modern Europe

Monday 24th September: Professor John Henderson (Birkbeck College, University of London and Monash University)
Death in Florence: Plague, Prosecution, and the Poor in Early Modern Florence

Monday 15th October: Dr. David Irving (University of Melbourne, Conservatorium of Music)
TBA

