LEARNING FROM ONE ANOTHER: BRINGING MUSLIM PERSPECTIVES INTO AUSTRALIAN SCHOOLS

Eeqbal Hassim and Jennet Cole-Adams

Learning from One Another is a new resource providing information, practical advice, and classroom strategies for teachers in all Australian schools.

It contains 116 full colour pages packed with background material, learning sequences and photocopiable worksheets.

Whether your school has one or many Muslim students, this resource will:

- ◆ provide avenues for you to introduce Islam and Muslim related content in your classrooms
- ◆ equip you with the skills to meet the needs and expectations of Muslim students and their parents in education
- ◆ facilitate a whole-school approach to supporting healthy relationships and engagement with Muslim students, parents and communities
- ◆ offer a greater awareness of the diversity of Islam and Muslims, nationally and globally
- ◆ develop an appreciation of Muslim history and cultures in Australia.

To order a copy please complete the form overleaf or contact ACSA on 02 6260 5660.

Professional learning workshops based on this resource are being held throughout Australia. See www.acsa.edu.au for more details.

Learning from One Another: Bringing Muslim perspectives into Australian schools

is published by the National Centre of Excellence for Islamic Studies in collaboration with the Australian Curriculum Studies Association. This initiative has been generously funded by The Myer Foundation.
