Overseas Intensive Subject Information Session

SOCI90003 – Comparative Social Policy
University Gadjah Madah, Jogjakarta, Indonesia
11 – 18 November 2015
The due date for Expressions of Interest is 5pm Monday 6 July 2015. You'll be notified of outcomes by Monday 20 July 2015.

- Applicants are assessed and ranked on the basis of their Expression of Interest form and their cumulative grade point average across their current degree.
- Preference is given to students completing their final 100 points of their degree (last year of degree).
- Preference is given to those who have not yet participated in an overseas intensive.
- Australia Awards students are eligible to participate.
- International students must ensure that they can attain a study visa for the destination country.
- Overseas Scholarship holders must ensure that they are allowed to study outside of Australia.
- If you are successful, the enrolments team will advise you when the pre-requisite has been lifted for this subject on your study plan so that you are able to enrol.
Getting to the Destination

- Students are responsible for booking and paying for their own flights. All participants must provide their full travel itinerary to the Faculty and register with Melbourne Global Mobility.
- You can choose to extend your stay either side of the subject dates. This will affect the type of travel insurance you need to buy.
- A pre-departure session will be held in September for successful applicants providing more information about on-the-ground transportation.
- Students are responsible for booking and paying for their own accommodation
- We recommend that you stay at University Club Hotel, located on campus and close to the city centre
- Rates start at about $42 AUD per night; consider sharing with a classmate to save costs
- Selected students’ emails will be circulated amongst the cohort so you can plan your travel together if you like
COSTS FOR WHICH STUDENTS ARE LIABLE

- Flights to destination
- Accommodation
- Meals and food
- Private Insurance
- Personal on-ground transport
- Personal travel / sightseeing
- Course-related costs
- Visa-related costs

SCHOLARSHIPS / FUNDING AVAILABLE

Global Mobility Grants
Students travelling abroad to undertake intensive subjects may be eligible for the Melbourne Global Grant, a travel support grant of $1,000 through the Melbourne Global Mobility program. Students are only eligible for one GM scholarship during the course of their degree. Applications should be completed online via the MGM website http://unimelb.mobilityscholarship.com/Application/Create.

Faculty of Arts Funding
Successful applicants will receive a travel support grant of $700 from the Faculty of Arts. This will be paid after completion of the subject.
• Free University travel insurance is available to all students undertaking this subject (for the duration of the subject). Register / apply here: http://www.fpg.unimelb.edu.au/io/internal/students/std-travreg.html

• If student is travelling privately before or after the subject(s) they will need to arrange additional, private travel insurance.

• The policy is fairly basic. Students should check it to make sure it covers all of their requirements. Information is available here: http://www.fpg.unimelb.edu.au/io/

• If this policy doesn't meet your requirements, consider purchasing private cover.

• To be eligible for university insurance, students must apply at least two weeks before departure.
• Lectures to be taught by dr. Irma Mooi-Reci, Professor John Murphy and colleagues from the University Gadjah Madah with wide experience on comparative issues of social policy.

• Lectures include hands-on in-class assignments

• Integrated in the subject will be field visits and field labs to meet the local communities

• Opportunity to connect to other bright students in Indonesia with similar interests
• Focus of the lectures will be on:

General Introduction
• Frameworks and concepts in Social Policy (Day 1)
• Comparative Frameworks, Theories and Typologies (Day 2)

Special Focus
• Demographic change and Social Policy in ASEAN (Day 3)
• Ageing and Retirement Pensions across ASEAN (Day 4)
• Labour Migration in ASEAN (Day 5)

Conclusion
• Review and Conclusions (Day 6)