1. (one)

Look, there's a chicken. That's Chicken Little's mother. Chicken Little's mother is walking back and forth calling for Chicken Little, but Chicken Little still hasn't turned up.

2. (two)

Chicken Little's mother has just told Chicken Little's father. Both of them go looking for their child straightaway.

3. (three)

Chicken Little's uncle and aunt are also worried. Auntie's friend wants to help them. The three chickens all set off to look for Chicken Little.

4. (four)

Everyone has heard the news about Chicken Little being lost. Four chickens who are friends of Chicken Little's father want to help look for Chicken Little.

5. (five)

The sun has already started to go down, but Chicken Little still hasn't been found. Five chickens start helping straightaway. Maybe they'll find Chicken Little.

6. (six)

But Chicken Little still can't be found. Now everyone joins in to help. Six chickens can be seen cackling together, all calling for Chicken Little.

Where did Chicken Little go? Suddenly..... Chicken Little's voice can be heard, "cheep-cheep-cheep". Hey, there he is! From far away we can see Chicken Little running home – all happy. It seems he went walking to Uncle Paul's house. Chicken Little was playing with Fido, Uncle Paul's dog, and forgot to go home. He is very naughty!

Father and mother are happy to see him.
Luckily, Chicken Little wasn't lost.

Mother says: "Chicken Little, next time ask me before you go for a walk!"
"Yes, mum", says Chicken Little.
