

Eligibility criteria

The criteria for applying for a Melbourne Global Languages Scholarship are:

1. Students must be enrolled in a UoM degree or diploma during the scholarship application round
2. Graduate students must have completed 50 points in their enrolled course
3. Undergraduate students must have completed 100 points in their enrolled course (Students must have completed 25 points of modern language study at UoM or through approved complementary language subjects at other institutions which are credit against the enrolled degree or diploma)
4. Be currently enrolled in a language subject as per their overseas study target language at the time of application
5. The target language to be studied must be a native language to the intended country of exchange or study abroad
6. The proposed overseas program of study must be equivalent to at least 12.5 points delivered in the target language and be credit bearing towards the currently enrolled UoM course
7. Overseas programs shorter than a semester in duration must be of an intensive delivery mode
8. The overseas study program must be approved by the Faculty and University
9. The student must have achieved an H2B 70% average in the target language and overall WAM of 70% across their academic record, with no results below an H2B (70+) in the target language subjects
10. The student is ineligible for a Melbourne Global Languages Scholarship if they have previously been, or have currently been awarded either of the following:
  - Melbourne Mobility Awards
  - Melbourne Global Languages Scholarship
11. The Scholarship cannot be deferred, students unable to travel in the period the scholarship is awarded should reapply again in a future round.
12. Incomplete applications will not be considered