08.30-09.00 – Registration and coffee

09.00-09.15 – Opening Address
Prof Mark Considine – University of Melbourne

09:15-10.45 – Global trends, domestic responses: Trends in challenges and issues in responding to corruption
Chair: Prof Mark Considine

Prof Salvatore Cincimino – Universita Degli Studi di Palermo
Corruption as no risky business: the Italian case

Prof Leslie Holmes – University of Melbourne
Has there really been a "corruption eruption" since the 1990s?

Q&A

10.45-11.15 – Morning tea

11.15-12.45 – Responding to corruption: Perspectives from business and civil society on issues and challenges
Chair: Prof Fiona Haines – University of Melbourne

Mr Phil Newman – Transparency International Australia
Corruption-related reputation risk – Australia’s journey and potential solutions

Mr John Fast – Dragoman Pty Ltd
Practical business consequences of a disconnected world

Mr Kym Kelly – Flinders University
Diverting the proceeds of corruption towards anti-corruption measures

Q&A

12.45-13.30 – Lunch
13.30- 15.00 – Country perspectives: Issues and challenges in tackling corruption
Chair: Dr Rachael Diprose

Prof Denny Indrayana – University of Melbourne
Killing Democracy: Duitokrasi and electoral corruption in Indonesia

Dr Graeme Smith - University of Melbourne
Corruption with Chinese characteristics: Local perspectives on Xi Jinping’s anti-corruption drive

Dr Grant Walton – Crawford School, Australian National University
From despair to where? Challenges to resisting corruption in Papua New Guinea

Q&A

15.00 – 15.30 – Afternoon coffee break

15.30-17.00 – Responding to corruption: perspectives from anti-corruption bodies on issues and challenges
Chair – Professor Leslie Holmes – University of Melbourne

Prof Jon Quah – Anti-Corruption Consultant, Singapore
Combating corruption in Singapore: Lessons from the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau

Mr David Robinson – WA Corruption and Crime Commission
In search of the perfect business model - a short history of anti-corruption agencies in Western Australia

Mr Alistair Maclean – Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC)
Perspectives from Victoria’s first broad-based anti-corruption commission

Q&A

17.00-17.30 – Wrap up

18.00-20.30 – Dinner and reception