Studies in Language Assessment

Studies in Language Assessment (SiLA) is the international peer-reviewed research journal of ALTAANZ. The journal is an online, open-access publication that welcomes contributions from both new and experienced researchers in the form of full research articles, research reports and discussion papers, on topics in the field of language assessment. It also publishes commissioned book and test reviews. Currently, there are at least one regular issue and one theme-based special issue each year. SiLA is included in the Web of Science Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI).

Since it is an open access journal, all content published in SiLA is freely available without charge to the user or their institution. Users are allowed to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of the articles, or use them for any other lawful purpose, without asking prior permission from the publisher or the author. This is in accordance with the BOAI definition of open access. SiLA content is distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>. SiLA does not accept commercial advertising.

SiLA is available online here on the ALTAANZ website and also at the Language Testing Research Centre at the University of Melbourne.

Enquiries can be directed to the Editorial Assistant, sila.editors@gmail.com. Correspondence on editorial matters should be addressed to the Editors, John Read and Jason Fan via email to sila.editors@gmail.com. The Reviews Editor is Ivy Chen, the University of Melbourne.

From 2012 to 2022, the title of the journal was Papers in Language Testing and Assessment (PLTA). Prior to 2012, the Language Testing Research Centre at the University of Melbourne produced an earlier publication, Melbourne Papers in Language Testing (MPLT). The full catalogue of back issues of MPLT is available here: MPLT Back Issues \(1992-2010\).
